Southern Twin Cities	Claudette Lamprecht	952-890-8744	13804 E. Wellington Crescent Burnsville, 55337

Specifically, the following items are especially appreciated:

- Any store purchased mushroom or mushroom products
- Foraged dried mushrooms: whole Chaga, Morels, Oysters, Black Trumpets, and Hen-of-the-Woods or ground: Chaga, Chicken-of-the-Woods, and Lobsters
- Home canned pickles and fruits, dried veggies and fruits
- Mushroom themed linens (such as tea towels, napkins, place mats) and home décor
- Foray gear: knives, brushes, compass, water bottle, thermos, to-go lunch stuff, mushroom bags, bug protection stuff, etc.
- Kitchen items: knives, cutting boards, pot holders, wood and stainless utensils, mushroom cleaning aids, etc.
- Mushroom art: wood carved mushrooms, funganicals, and prints
- Mushroom books, ID, recipes, lore.
- Mushroom mixology: cocktail or wine glasses, mixers and shakers, mushroom tinctures or infusions

Items for crafty assembling of raffle and auction items:

- New or up-cycled fabric such as quilting cottons, plain cotton and linen
- Plain tea towels, cloth dinner napkins, aprons etc.

Share your abilities and creativity:

- Donate a service such as a massage, to cook a mushroom dinner for two, or lead a private foray.
- Donate hand-crafted items: knit, crocheted, sewed, ceramic, and etc.
- If you are into crafting gifts, consider making extra for the MMS raffle/silent auction donation.
- Re-gift your unneeded gifts to the MMS!

With your help, we will raise funds for the MMS mission of mycological educational outreach. Please consider donating items for this effort and participating in the February MMS raffle/silent auction.
